CYNTHIANA, KY.

THURSDAY, :::: June 6, 1867

A. J. MOREY, EDITOR.

DEMOCRACY.—The world is and always has been a mere dreamer.

In religion how diverse, and often how absurd have been the operations of men after her highest excellence.

Under Pagan supremacy, how numerous and variant were the schemes of sectarian philosophers, all groping blindly after spiritual truth. And even in the full sunshine of Bible revelations, how diverse are these plans and theories all claiming to aim at the great boon of which, until the birth of the Saviour of mankind, no definite idea had been promulgated to the human race.

A reference to church history, amply proves that under such various names as Nestorianism, Manicheanism and other isms without number, the simple gospel truth has been beclouded with a thousand monstrous absurdities; and while the scriptures ever pregnant with truth, distinctly points the way to eternal salvation, the perverse ingenuity of man has persistently led his mind astray. Hence the sacred name of Christianity has been usurped as the shibboleth of all that is monstrous in words and practice.

Thus it is also in politics.

Democracy is the very life of the life of popular representative government, such as ours pretends to be.

But of true Democracy, there are as many counterfeits as of true religion; and while of the latter the true source and exponent is the man Christ Jesus; so at an immeasurable distance, the exponent of the former, is Thomas Jefferson.

Now while we depicte any comparison of our statesman with the Son of God, and Saviour of the world, we are none the less struck by some points of resemblance. But this is delicate—indeed sacred ground, and we will pursue the idea no further.

The cardinal idea of "equal rights to all, exclusive privileges to none," underlies the whole structure of political truth and justice.

Upon this broad principle, the entire fabric of constitutional liberty in America was raised. And in the infancy of our republic it was stronger than ever since, simply because all citizens from Massachusetts to Georgia had little interest in its preservation from foreign aggression. Then all were driven together by outside pressure.

As the Republic grew apace the differences of pursuits, products, climate and worse than all, of blood gradually make themselves manifest, in the self-seeking greed of the men of the North.

After first selling their domestic slaves to the planters of the South, and having already grown rich by the African slave trade, pocketing the proceeds; then under the silly teachings of Garrison, Thompson, Greeley and id omne genus, setting up a system of fanatical cant which resulted as all have seen and felt within the last disastrous six years, they still howl.

Such is Northern fanaticism, such the history of the benign teachers of the world in latter days.

Enough of all this; Democracy still lives; despite all the attacks of non-tax-paying bond holders, petted, protected, slave driving manufacturers, shoddy millionaires, and all the tricks, traps and stratagems of the worse than Egyptian task-masters, who have stolen so much power, and wealth from the people.

And it will live and triumph forever.

At a large meeting of the Democracy of Campbell County, held pursuant to notice at the Court-house in Alexandria on Monday, June 3, 1867, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Judicial District Convention, to be held in Newport on the 18th instant, to nominate a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, Col. Charles Murnan was called to the chair, and R. W. Nelson appointed Secretary.

On motion of H. D. Helm, a committee of two persons from each voting district was appointed to select and report the names of delegates.

During the absence of the committee, J. R. Hallam, Esq., upon invitation, addressed the meeting at some length, on the political issues of the day.

James T. Berry, Edward Air, R. D. Hayman, and others were named as delegates who were unanimously appointed.

On motion of James T. Berry, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we recommend to the Democratic District Convention James R. Hallam, of this county, for nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney.

R. W. Nelson offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we heartily accept the doctrines just given to us by our honored friend J. R. Hallam, and recommend to the Democracy everywhere, the propriety of an unflinching exertion to restore to power the Democratic party, believing that in so doing we will avert the impending despotism that now dangerously threaten our land.

J. Brownlow's militia being turned loose to depredate upon the people, are committing the most fiendish outrages. They recognize no law except their own passions and hate.

In Franklin county, Tenn., they took out a man named Brown and shot him dead because he had been a Confederate soldier. The citizens of Winchester held a meeting on Wednesday to consider the subject. Many citizens are hiding out to escape violence. This is the assurance Brownlow has of re-election. He expects to ride in by main force. The President has been petitioned to protect the lives and property of the people. In case of his failing to do so, the people are recommended to protect themselves.

J. Frank Parish, of Nashville, says the Louisville Courier, died last Saturday. He was a colored man, who was favorably spoken of as a candidate for Governor of Tennessee, in opposition to Brownlow, the infam.

J. Gov. Brownlow has given public notice that he will send armed forces to every place where his competitor, Hon. E. Ethridge, shall speak. The commanders of the troops will know what they are sent for. They will be impatient and quick to take occasion to do what is expected of them. They will try not to disappoint their employers.

Brownlow is perhaps the cursedest villain alive.—Dan. Adv.

J. Beast Butler is very much concerned in regard to the whereabouts of J. Wilkes Booth's diamond pin, which was taken from his body. Since he has turned his attention to the subject, he will be very apt to find it, if it is above ground. When he gets after jewelry it has to come.

J. We learn from the Cincinnati Enquirer, that at the recent term of the Criminal Court of Bracken county, Ky., held at Brookville, a man seventy years old, named Hiram Thomas, was tried on the charge of murdering his wife, Margaret Thomas, on the 18th of March, 1864. The only witness for the prosecution was Isaac Davis, who testified that he was engaged by Thomas to shell corn; that most of the day on which the murder was committed he and others shelled corn in Thomas' barn; that toward evening he and Thomas took a lot of corn and went to the latter's house, for the purpose of shelling corn until bedtime. While they were thus engaged, Mrs. Thomas and Davis commenced joking the old man in regard to his partiality for other women besides herself. The conversation was kept up for some time, Thomas, who did not seem to like it, every now and then remarking "I will kill." Davis, who was shelling corn on the chine of a barrel, with his head partly in the barrel said that he did not pay any attention to the remarks of Thomas about killing, but was suddenly startled by the report of a gun, and turning around found the old man with a gun in his hands, and Mrs. Thomas leaning back in her chair, with her head partially blown off. When the witness saw what had been done, he exclaimed: "Hiram, you have killed her?" to which he replied "have I? then I will kill another," and commenced reaching for another gun, when Davis ran away. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, and he was sentenced to be hung in August next. Strong efforts are being made to obtain a new trial for him. He has been a citizen of Bracken thirty-five years, and always bore a good character.

Job Work of all kinds neatly executed at this office.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes as follows:

As a matter of some political interest, it may be mentioned that many of the more prominent leaders of the Democratic party, who have been quietly in consultation here during the past week, are in favor of a speedy change of the entire policy of that party, in the hope that it will enable them to carry the next Presidential election. To make a long story short the plan is simply this—to ignore the negro altogether, and to bring up Internal Improvements in his place. They will pledge themselves in favor of the Niagara Ship Canal, in favor of reconstructing the Mississippi levees, and of pushing forward to completion the three lines of Pacific Railroad. It is calculated that on these issues they can carry the great West, especially if free trade be tucked on, while of their success in the Middle States they profess to have no doubt. That is the programme in outline. It will have some filling up in regard to the Monroe doctrine, the constitutional obligations, and the binding force of Supreme Court decisions, but Internal Improvements and Free Trade will be the two pillars on which the platform will be made to rest.

This new political movement, as I have said, has been quietly maturing for some time past, but it will not be long before it is officially announced, with the announcement the Democratic campaign for the next Presidency will regularly begin.

ATLANTA, June 3.—The following is the substance of an important general order just issued by Gen. Pope:

1st. The interference of the post-commander at Mobile with newspapers published there is entirely disapproved, and his action reversed.

2. He declares it is the duty of military authorities to secure the utmost freedom of speech and of the press consistent with law.

3. Orders that no officer or soldier in his command is to interfere with newspapers or speakers on any pretext. If any disturbance is feared, precaution will be taken as prescribed in Order No. 25.

4. Reasonable utterances are not the legitimate exercise of freedom of discussion, but even in such cases no action is to be taken but by direct orders from these headquarters.

The colored chivalry of Memphis are making extensive preparations for a tournament on the 6th of June—white folks admitted for half price.

Fred. Douglass cannot be there, but old John Brown's soul is marching that way. The "sable knights" are to be mounted on horses, mules, or foal, and will carry carbines, if found necessary, to illuminate the darkness. A queen of love and beauty will be crowned with a water-lily by the successful knight, and presented with a brass mounted looking glass. The knights of the Ebion Shuh, Chalk-in-the-eye, dat colored euss from Africa, knight of Dinah Jenkins, and other celebrities, will add to the pomp of the occasion.

COVINGTON MARKETS.

CATTLE—Market quiet, and prices about the same as last week. The receipts since our last have amounted to $19 head, 534 of which were shipped East and North, and the remainder sold here at the following prices:

First quality, $7 25@7 50 per 100 lbs; second quality, $6 22@6 50; third quality, $4 50@5 50. Extra quality, and those suitable for shipping, sell at $8 @8 25.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—The receipts during the past week amounted to 1,593 head, 1,200 of which were sold at $3 26@5 per 100 lbs. for sheep, and $3 @4 50 per head for lambs. Extra fine sheep would, perhaps, command $5 50.

HOGS—Sales of 281 head are reported at $5 75@6 75 per 100 lbs. gross. No extra hogs are being offered, they would probably sell at $7.

COWS AND CALVES—A few milk cows have been sold during the past week at $50@72 per head.

Calves we quote at 7@9c. per lb.

15 Years Ago and Now.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Hossett's Stomach Bitters was struggling into notice against the prejudices which everything new, however excellent, is doomed to encounter.

TO-DAY

It stands at the head of all the tonic and alterative preparations in existence. Its celebrity has evoked many imitations, but no rivals. Physicians pronounce it the only safe stimulant that has ever been introduced into the sick chamber. In the hospitals of the army and navy, the surgeons find it the very best tonic for convalescents, and report it as invaluable for sustaining the vigor of troops on the march, as a remedy for soury and all scorbutic affections, and the only specific for sea-sickness. California and Australia have emphatically endorsed it as the minor's medicine par excellence, and in Spanish America and all the tropical climates it is considered the only reliable antidote to epidemic fever.

There is no mystery about the causes of its success. It is the only stomachic and alterative in which are combined the grand requisites of a valid, pure and invigorating vegetable stimulant, with the finest selection of tonic anti-bilious, anti-scorbutic, aperient and depurative herbs, plants, roots and barks that have ever been intermixed in a medicinal preparation.

It is also proper to state that the Bitters are sold exclusively in glass, and never under any circumstances, by the gallon or the barrel. Imposters and imitators are abroad and the only safeguard to the public has against them is to see that the Bitters they buy bear the engraved label and note of hand of Messrs. Hossett & Smith, and the Government stamp over the cork of the bottle.

LYON'S PERIODICAL

DROPS!

The Great Female Remedy for Irregularities!!!

I HAVE tested these Drops in my own practice, over ten years, and do not hesitate to say, that nothing has yet been developed by medical research, that acts so powerfully, positively and harmlessly, in cases of female irregularity, as does this medicine. In all recent cases, it never fails, while thousands who have been long sufferers, are indebted to it for the boon of health to-day.

Although so powerful and positive, and perfectly harmless, and may be used at all times, except when specially forbidden by the directions.

They have been extensively employed by eminent physicians in France and England, as well as in my own practice, over ten years, and I have yet to hear of the first instance of failure. I could give you testimonials of their efficacy from ladies all over the Northern and North Western States were they not in their nature, private. Over 100,000 bottles have been sold the last year, and I hope and trust as many still are.

They are so powerful and positive, and may be used at all times, except when specially forbidden by the directions.

To all who suffer from any irregularity: painful, difficult, excessive, offensive or obstructed Menstruation, Leucorrhea, or the train of diseases that follow, I would say, take a bottle of Dr. Lyon's French Periodic Drops. Being a fluid preparation, their action is more direct and positive than any pills or powders. Explicit directions bearing my facsimile, accompany each bottle.

We notice that Carpenter & Bro., have imported the stone for the banking building now being built in this city.

Mr. J. Reuler, Jr., purchased about 60 head of fat cattle this week for which he paid from 7 to 7 3/4cts per lb. gross.

We understand that Mr. Northcutt intends to improve his dry goods house next spring, and make a first-class business establishment.

Last Monday the son of Mr. Jack Mathews, of this county, was thrown from a wagon, and struck on his head, which injured him severely, but not seriously.

The depot is going up rapidly. In a few weeks railroad accommodations will be as good in Cynthiana as elsewhere. Thanks to Mr. Keith.

Shannon & Turtur are discussing the propriety of building a three story brick on the ground now occupied by their tin shop on Main street. We hope they may conclude to build.

The annual examination of the Millersburg Female College, will commence to-day, June 6, and will continue until the 11th.

Mr. Ottwell, has his Soda Fountain in operation, where all can be accommodated with a cool drink. The ladies are invited especially to call and see the fountain.

Mrs. Jno. McKee will accept our thanks for a lot of the finest radishes ever grown. Mr. Hill, of the firm of Hill and Forman, brought them to our office. We hope to see more of the same sort.

We notice from the New York World, that flour has fallen about two dollars in the market of that city, on a hundred, and says that they expect to pay only about fifteen dollars per barrel hereafter.

A meeting of the Fenian Brotherhood will be held to-night at the Court-house. Everybody is invited to attend. A number of eminent Irish orators will be present and address the meeting.

On last Saturday we received a bouquet from our fair friend, Miss Aleasha W—, which was as fair as the hands that sent it. She has already received thanks:

Sweet flowers, thou tell'st how hearts As pure and tender as the leaf—is low And humble as thy stem—will surely know The joy that peace imparts.

The advertisement of Jurey & Burgess, Covington, Ky., will be found in another column. These gentlemen have a large assortment of drugs in store at their establishment and they will sell goods at as cheap rates as they can be bought in Cincinnati, or any other city. Our friends should call and see them when in Covington.

A negro woman visited the house of W. H. Rose, not long since, and was invited to sit down and eat with the white people, which she did. This man Rose then gave thanks that he was permitted to eat with negroes. We hope this radical will turn as black in his face as he is in heart.

We are authorized to announce Mr. S. T. Wall as a candidate for nomination for the office of commonwealth's attorney in this Judicial District, to be elected in August next.

We are authorized to announce Wm. C. Marshall, of Lexington, a Democratic candidate for commonwealth's attorney for this Judicial District.

The ladies of Cynthiana, will give next Friday night, a strawberry supper, at the Court house, for the benefit of the "Confederate Monumental Society," of this place. Everybody should turn out and attend. The cause is a glorious one and we know that a liberal public will give without stint to build a lasting monument to our lost friends.

The county of Harrison is entitled to three scholarships in the "Agricultural College" located at Lexington, we believe. It is a concern we know little about, and care to know less. It is time that the Legislature of Kentucky, ceased making appropriations for the advantage of a certain few. It is regular Black Republican style of doing business. The people of this county have paid taxes enough for the benefit of a few nabobs.

How fragrant is the air with the perfume from a thousand exotic plants and all nature seems clad in her holiday attire. Yet misery is still in our midst. The roses may bloom, and nature put on her garlands of leaf and bud and flower. But men will nevertheless suffer—Dyspepsia, the sure forerunner of death, and the companion of a miserable life, claim him as a subject. Do not wait then, dear reader, till its ravages lay you low in death, for nature has likewise found an antidote—compounded of her roots and barks—and prepared Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. It will immediately cure the worst cases of Dyspepsia in existence. The proprietors warrant it in every case.

Last Saturday night some person or persons unknown, approached the bed-room window of Jno. McClinton, who resides near Millersburg, Bourbon county, and shot him, the ball passing through his lungs. Mr. McClinton, it will be remembered, is the man who was arrested as an accomplice in the murder of Armstrong, and is held under heavy bail. We have not learned whether this last affair has anything to do with the first difficulty or not. It is an unfortunate affair all round, and should teach parents to be a little careful how they meddle in the love affairs of their children—especially when the children have chosen partners qualified in every respect to fill the position which married life demands. This unfortunate affair is closed up now, and we hope it may be forgotten.

At the Burnett House in Cincinnati, on Monday evening June 3, by the Rev. W. A. Fiske, Mr. C. W. West to Miss Nannie, eldest daughter of the late Dr. H. W. Frazer, all of Cynthiana Ky.

At the same time and place, by the same, James H. Daviss, Esq., to Miss Sue Patterson, all of Scott county, Ky.

We learn from the Louisville Courier, that Hon. Jno. W. Stevenson, candidate for Lieut. Governor, commenced canvassing the first district yesterday, and is advertised to speak at sixteen different places.

MARRIED.

At the Burnett House in Cincinnati, on Monday evening June 3, by the Rev. W. A. Fiske, Mr. C. W. West to Miss Nannie, eldest daughter of the late Dr. H. W. Frazer, all of Cynthiana Ky.

At the same time and place, by the same, James H. Daviss, Esq., to Miss Sue Patterson, all of Scott county, Ky.

On the morning of the 4th inst., at Clayville, by Rev. Mr. Lancaster, Mr. J. L. Young to Miss Fanny Whitehead, all of Harrison.

In peace, love turns the shepherd's reed;

In war, he mounts the warrior's steed;

In halls, in gay attire is seen;

In hamlets, dances on the green;

Loverless, the court, the camp, the grove;

And men below and saints above;

For love is heaven, and heaven is love.

DIED.

On the 29th of May, 1867, Miss Kate Ewalt, daughter of Col. Sam. Ewalt.

Many, my friend, have mourn'd for thee,

And yet shall many more,

Long as thy name on earth shall be

In sweet remembrance borne;

For while thine absence they deplore,

Tis for themselves they weep,

That they behold thy face no more.

On Wednesday, May 29, 1867, Miss Katy Martin, daughter of M. D. Martin, Esq., of this county.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED.

At the wonderful revelations made by the great astrologist, Madame H. A. Perrigo.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew,

she restores to happiness those who, from foolish events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day

you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic star that overcomes or predominates in the configuration—from the aspects and position of the planets, and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fall not to consult the greatest astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consult her with likeness and all desired information. Persons living at a distance can consult the medium by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as in person. A full and explicit chart, written with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. The firm will enlarge their business in both departments.

We have purchased a large amount of

FAST WORKING MACHINES,

For the manufacture of tin-ware, and can therefore afford to furnish it at

CHASER RATES than heretofore.

We have for sale one of the most celebrated manufacture now in Market, and will be branches, and will attend to all jobs entrusted to his care with alacrity.

All work such as

Roofing,

Guttering,

Sputting,

Sheet-Iron and Copper work,

Will be executed in the best possible manner. The best workman, the country affords have been employed for the establishment, and the public are invited to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.
